Subject: Recommendation Letter for Ms. Wang Tianyu

Dear Sir or Madam,

It is with absolute pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Ms. Wang Tianyu. I have known Ms. Wang as one of my participants during the United Nations Internship Preparation Programme, a four-week long online training programme virtually implemented by UNITAR from 17 January – 13 February 2022. The programme consisted of a series of live-webinars, e-workshops, virtual guided tours and online projects related to the United Nations and other international organizations in Geneva.

As the UN Internship Preparation Programme brought students in close contact with a highly international environment, it required them to be competent in the use of English language, demonstrating cross-cultural sensitivity as well as a decent understanding of international affairs. Ms. Wang excelled in all of these aspects. From my observation, she also diligently carried out her required readings and regularly engaged in the written online discussions with experts and peers.

From the very beginning, Ms. Wang stood out by frequently unmuting herself to ask questions to UN trainers during the programme's live-components. In the days to follow, Ms. Wang underlined her special status by handing in a remarkable curriculum vitae and cover letter after the online career development sessions. A strong performance in the final project, in which participants had to complete internship typical tasks such as writing project proposals or creating outreach material, earned her the highest distinction among all participants.

I am thus convinced that Ms. Wang is an excellent choice for your programme, as she was for mine. I am certain she will continue to be a valuable member in your group and make the most of every opportunity she is being offered. Please do not hesitate to contact me in case you may need further elaboration regarding my assessment of Ms. Wang's character and capability.

Yours sincerely,

Julian Caletti
